ANENT COMING ELECTIONS, SENATE COMMITTEE HEARS

SOME DIFFICULT POINTS EXPLAINED

The coming election should be one of great importance to the Negro of Florida, hence the Negro should get ready and take a part. The main object now is to curb the lily whites. We have had the lily whites with us for a long time but they have never been so strong before. We are confidently of the opinion they would not now be so strong if the Negro had fought in his own party to keep them out rather than whine about the democratic primary. The writer has seen the Negro delegates dwindle from three fourths of the convention, to one sixth of the convention, which was the case at the last convention at Daytona. The Negro republicans have not dwindled in any such numbers but the interest of the Negroes has. Now he has to fight hard to maintain the little hold he has and to keep from being shut out altogether.

His economic condition is driving him to the wall and his political condition seems to be driving him into the wall. There must be a turn about face in both situations, or else he is lost.

It had just as well be recognized that the political and economic situations are bound up together. Now, if it is bound together for the white man, it is no less bound together for the Negro man. He just as well wake up before it is too late.

Let the Negro qualify now while he can. Register while the books are open and if he does not care to take part in the primary, be ready for the November election.

The Attorney General of the state has ruled that one who has registered as an Independent cannot vote in a republican or democratic primary.

A large number of our local people registered two years ago for the city primary. We registered as democrats to test the law, as we could not test it in any other way. We did not register as democrats for the state election; for that election we registered as republicans. If a few did register as democrats, in order to vote in the republican primary, it will be necessary for those people to register as republicans. There are not many who registered as democrats for the state election. It does not matter about the city books.

Every woman should register and qualify, because it is to her great interest as well as to the men. The crowd with a vote, a solid vote, such as can swing an election, will get many more things that they will not get if they are impotent. It is up to the Negro to take an interest in himself. Qualify, qualify and then qualify. The laws of cause and effect apply as much as loss.

The Republican club will meet next Friday night and any question that is desired to get clear on will be answered. Come out and bring a dime to help bear expenses.

CHILD WELFARE CLUB ORGANIZES

The Child Welfare club held its first social hour for the children of Pensacola, Saturday March 29 at Big Zion tabernacle. The next social hour will be held at the same place, April 26 at 3 p. m. All children between 4 and 14 are invited. At the first hour, Mrs. M. Wingate told stories to the kinder-

WALTER WHITE PROTEST CONFIRMATION OF JUDGE PARKER

New York, April 7—Walter White, acting secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People appeared before the sub-committee of the Senate committee on the Judiciary on Saturday, to voice the Association's protest against the elevation to the U.S. Supreme court of Judge John J. Parker of North Carolina.

Mr. White read a prepared statement, which set forth that Judge Parker, while candidate for governor of North Carolina in 1920, delivered an address in the course of which he characterized the Negro as unfit to participate in political life and said the Republican party did not desire the Negro to enter politics. In his address, according to the N.A.A.C.P. brief read by Mr. White, Judge Parker also clearly indicated that measures to disfranchise the Negro, embodied in the North Carolina state constitution, had his approval.

Judge Parker's utterances of 1920 were characterized by the N.A.A.C.P. as "shameless flouting" of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the Federal constitution. The statement continues:

"If Judge Parker, for political advantage, can flout two amendments to the Federal constitution, to pandering base race prejudice, we respectfully submit that he is not of the calibre which loyal intelligent Americans have the right to expect of justices of the nation's highest court.

Attached is a memorandum of some of the important cases involving the enforcement of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments so far as the citizenship rights of Negroes are concerned, which have been presented to the U. S. Supreme court within the past fifteen years. With the economic, educational, political and other progress which the Negro is making, and with the growing consciousness on the part of intelligent Americans as to the importance of the settlement of the race problem upon a basis of even-handed justice, it seems probable that even more cases of similar nature and equal importance will be presented in the near future.

Entertaining such views as he expressed in 1920 when he sought election to the governorship of North Carolina, we are strongly convinced that it would be improper to place such a man as Judge Parker upon the bench of the U. S. Supreme court."

Upon request of Senator Bohm, a member of the sub-committee, Mr. White read the names of officers and members of the board of directors of the N. A. A. C. P. Questioned by Senator Overman, of North Carolina, concerning the disfranchisement of the Negro.

garden children and also conducted games for them. Mrs. Beverette took charge of the intermediate group's stories. Mrs. G. D. Clements conducted their games. The officers of this club are as follows:

Mrs. N. W. Williams, president, Mrs. E. C. Moon, vice-president and founder; Mrs. Jordan, treasurer, Mrs. G. D. Clements, secretary.

THE NEGRO NEWSPAPER

BY MISS NANNIE BURROUGHS

Written for the Associated Negro Press and going the rounds of Negro Publications all over the Country

THERE CERTAINLY IS MORE ABOUT NEGROES IN THE SMALLEST RACE PAPER THAN THERE IS ABOUT THEM IN THE LARGEST DAILY PAPER. Put this in your pipe and smoke it. Negro newspapers have a real moral and social value in spite of their imperfections and limitations. If Negroes do any worthwhile thing the race newspaper is the only paper that tells the world the full story and carries the pictures of the actors along with it.

The Negro newspaper is the only source from which to get current information about the things that are going on among the Negroes. The editorial column of the columnist is the only source from which to get the viewpoint of the race on vital questions concerning them. Only once in many moons will you find in the daily papers creditable write-ups of the addresses given, and the proceedings of even our largest meetings or of our most pretentious undertakings. The daily papers seldom tell the stories of our greatest achievements. In fact, news reports about Negroes or Negro meetings are always written in a different style and tone from the stories that are written of other people and their big events. Even when the newspapers report such events the excerpts from the addresses that are delivered by outstanding Negroes are so emasculated that they sound almost senseless when we read them in the daily papers.

The daily papers like bad Negroes. They are the only ones who can get all the space they want on the front page. If they are sure enough had they could get their pictures in, too. Negroes wearing the livery of servitude can get their pictures in the photograph section of the Sunday papers, while the good Negroes are given an inch or so in the amen corner of the daily paper. If Negroes had to depend on the daily papers they would know very little of the worthwhile things that are done by the race. (Of course, if a Negro steals a 98 cent sweater, he is written up in the daily papers with a very vivid description of how he did the trick, and how the cop chased him, and how others joined in the chase.)

The Negro newspaper should have the unstinted support of the race because it publishes all of the good news and the constructive race ideals that help us forward. The men who fight the battles of the race with their pens and broadcast our achievements week by week, small though those achievements are, and smaller still the vehicles of expression through which the stories come to us, are doing the race an invaluable service. The best side of Negro life would never be told if it were not told by Negro editors and their news gatherers. "Muzzle not the ox that treadeth the corn." Our papers could have better service if the wise ones who know more than Solomon would put down their hammer and put up their money.

Race pride comes as a result of race knowledge. Get you a race paper and read it. If you do not like what is being written the job is open—take it and write something worth reading. Every editor in the country is looking for somebody who is a better writer than those who are now on his staff.

"Every man must fashion his garb according to his calling."

Allen Chapel, A.M.E. Church

Rev. W.A. Jennings, D.D. pastor,

The second quarterly conference will be in operation from Friday evening, April 11, through Sunday 13th. Rev. J. M. Wise, D. D., presiding elder of the Pensacola district of the A.M.E. Church, will have charge of the work as pertaining to the great program now in action. Therefore, the pastor, officers and members are planning to give the presiding elder the best conference ever held in Allen chapel.

And it is through this method that both members and friends are requested to be on hand and enjoy the many good things that will be a part of the conference. Dr. Wise is a great leader and will fill the pulpit on Sunday. To miss hearing his sermon will be a great loss to the good people of Pensacola.

The pastor, Rev. W. A. Jennings, is making a special call for all the members to be present on Sunday and so fulfill the law. Everybody welcome.

WELL KNOWN PASTOR TAKES WIFE

A host of friends and admirers were a bit surprised at a marriage that took place Tuesday night at Bethel A. M. E. church. The principals were Rev. Samuel H. Betts and Mrs. Leola Epton and the minister hearing their vows and pronouncing them man and wife was Bethel pastor, Rev. J. W. Walker. No introduction can be made of this well known groom. His bride has been a Pensacolian for the past two years and known in church circles as a very efficient and capable worker. Her membership was with Bethel; she was also organist for the church and Sunday school and filled other posts of duty.

It became known in the early afternoon that there was going to be a wedding at Rev. Walker's church after class meeting and as a consequence Rev. Walker had the biggest class attendance that he has had for some time.

I desire herewith to give a word of kind expression and extend thanks to the public for their rapid response to my new system of special prices on groceries. My business has increased 50 per cent since I have been advertising my special prices during the last six weeks. I have found by buying for cash, and operating on strictly economy basis, enables me to secure 2 per cent discount on all of my bills. By this method I am able to sell at a very close margin.

I am rendering to the public the very best of service in order to show my appreciation for their patronage. I have secured a contract with a jewelry company for 50 watches having a retail value of $9.75 each. I am giving these beautiful Wrist Watches to the first 50 customers that buy $10.00 worth of groceries. I felt that these gifts will be highly appreciated by my customers.

These watches will cost the customers $2.79 each after buying $10.00 worth at the Union Grocery store. To do this will call for a large volume of business, and if you will give me the business I will be able to meet any advertised prices on groceries. Grand United Order of Oddfellows Notice ANNOUNCEMENT

In consideration of the unemployment of many men of our group and the economic condition of the present times generally for many months, thereby making it difficult to keep up the present support, and retards the numerical growth of the order, therefore the committee of management found it necessary to continue in force the reduction of the regular initiation fee, which has proven so profitable to new members, a few months longer.

The D. G. L. of the State did likewise allowing the endowment department to continue the reduction for unfinancial members who have been out for less than twelve months, the opportunity of reinstating and again enter the fold of our grand and most ancient and honorable fraternal order, and one that has stood the test in America for more than 87 years.
