Apartment - Project Fate Hangs In Balance As FHA Time Runs Out

Methodist Church Property Proposed As Site For Homes

By C. W. GREENLAF

With the sands of time trickling out for those developers of private housing projects who would use some of Uncle Sam's money to provide decent and adequate homes for the nation's cramped families, a "last-minute" ray of hope for Atlanta's harassed, much-bombed and threatened "middle-class Negro" families hangs in the balance.

A proposed 1,500 unit apartment development designed for "middle-income" groups, came to light recently through the announcement of the Atlanta Housing Authority. The Methodist Church is an organization of investors known as Housing, Inc. It had been hailed by Negro leaders as a veiled effort to relieve the great housing shortage among Negro families.

The Atlanta World learned Saturday that the proposed private development had not as yet been approved by the Federal Housing Agency for a loan to underwrite construction, and the section 8 of the Federal Housing Act, under which such a loan would be considered, expires on January 15th.

The proposed development, known as the Atlanta Housing Authority, is to be located on the site of the old Atlanta Housing Authority, which was formerly the site of the Atlanta Housing Authority.

Revenge Motive Laid To Slayings

KOSCIUSKO, Mississippi — Three escaped convicts shot to death three children in Newport, Miss., Monday and wounded two other persons in what police termed a "cold-blooded revenge" slaughter.

The three fugitives escaped from Kosciusko Jail Dec. 30. One of them, Malcolm Whit, 36, was captured while trying to flee in a truck driven by a Negro.

Reputation as Art Claims It Is Stagnant in Rights Band Wagon

Wherry Assures Reporter Of Dedication To Progress

BY ALICE A. DUNNINGAN
WASHINGTON (ANP)—The Republican party made it known last week that it was still on the civil rights band wagon when the Senate Minority leader Kenneth S. Wherry last Saturday pledged wholehearted support of all measures in the congress and "all movements among the people designed to effectuate complete equality of opportunity among all persons as assured in the Constitution of the United States."

Wherry assured an ANP reporter that he had consistently and enthusiastically supported the platform declarations of the Republican in favor of civil rights and in opposition to "intolerant discrimination on account of race, creed, religion or nationality enacted throughout the entire career, both before and since he has become a Member of the United States Senate."

"Equality of opportunity for every citizen regardless of race, creed, religion or national origin, is a principle firmly embedded in the Constitution of the United States," he declared.

The Republican party has dedicated itself to the principle that "all men are created equal" ever since it was founded in 1854 under the guidance of Abraham Lincoln, declared Senator Wherry.

ON ANTI-LYNCHING
Ever since becoming senator in 1943, Senator Wherry has supported legislation to prohibit requirements for payment on poll tax as a condition of qualification to vote in elections for President, Vice President, and membership in Congress.

In 1948, he said, he voted with the Republican membership in the Senate in adopting a written pledge to give anti-poll tax legislation priority consideration in the next Congress. The Republican Party retained the Majority leadership in this Congress.

He pointed out that he voted for legislation, during the recent war, to enable men and women to serve abroad, to equal their salaries in elections and to have repeatedly advocated equal opportunity legislation for men and women in the armed forces.

ON ANTI-LYNCHING LEGISLATION
The junior senator from Nebraska said he had been equally persistent in his efforts to speed anti-lynching legislation. He said he had actively supported and introduced legislation to speed the passage of the anti-lynching bill through the House and the Senate.

Supporting the anti-lynching bill introduced by Senator Foster of Pennsylvania, Republican of Michigan, which was reported favorably by the Judiciary Committee, Wherry claims to have repeatedly introduced legislation to speed the passage of the anti-lynching bill through the House and the Senate.

ON ANTI-LYNCHING LEGISLATION
The Minority Leader insisted that he had not only supported anti-lynching legislation but also supported the anti-poll tax legislation. He said he had introduced legislation to speed the passage of the anti-poll tax bill through the House and the Senate.

Jordan W. Chambers, colored political leader and J. E. Mitchell, publisher of the St. Louis Argus, expressed appreciation for Mayor Darst's recently made appointment of Dr. Grant.

Friends and relatives of Dr. Grant were present. Dr. Grant was appointed to succeed the late Dr. P. H. Sullivan, who resigned October 31.

Civil Rights Legislation Gets Two, Possibly Three, Friends

Do Northern Democratic Solons Want Civil Rights?

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(ONPA)—The action of Democratic Senators at a party conference last Thursday raised the question of whether they really want to pass civil rights legislation.

Supporters of the measure try to point out that the Democratic Party is not a monolith and that there are many Democrats who are in favor of civil rights legislation.

Before an agreement was reached, however, Southern Senators raised the question of whether civil rights amendments also were to be fought off.

After a two-hour discussion, it was agreed that none of the Democratic Senators attending the conference would offer an amendment to the House-approved omnibus bill or to any other pending legislation during the session.

NO RULE OF GERMANNESS
The Senate has no rule of germaneness except as to appropriation bills, and Republican Senators from delaying states had threatened to offer the fair employment practice bill as an amendment to the omnibus bill.

If this threat is carried out, the conference agreement, according to the Southern Democrats, is bound to be broken. The Southern Democrats are the ones chiefly interested in the omnibus bill. They are bound to vote with the Southern Democrats to keep the bill from coming out of the Senate.

On the other hand, Southern Senators are bound to vote with the Southern Democrats to keep the bill from coming out of the Senate.

Senator Edwin C. Johnson, Democrat of Colorado, indicated, however, that he would not be bound by the agreement.
