Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference officials are buzzing over forthcoming joint meet with college presidents in Atlanta during the track and field championships in May. The participating schools were scheduled at the request of President B. E. Moys of the SIAC. He recently sent a letter to the SIAC when it met in the city of Birmingham last week. The letter was signed by the president of the City Bomber, has been signed for the feature role in "The Joe Boxer Story." Boxing's Cinderella Story is not that of Jersey Joe Walcott but rather the saga of Archie Moore. Willie Greason, a million-dollar pitcher shot of the Oklahoma City Indians, opens the program. The origin of the name of the SIAC is being made Birmingham, Ala., Alabama his winter home. He rated the rookie pitcher as one of the best in the country. This is true although the Bulldogs have had traditional conference success since they moved from Knoxville to Knoxville. The team will climb higher up the win-

New Year

(From The Chattanooga Observer)

Today we start on the New Year of 1953. The old year of 1952 has revealed to us all of its secrets. It officially closed its books of midnight last night.

Millions of Americans and people throughout the world have made and are making new resolutions, and we judge the future by the past, millions of the new resolutions will be short-lived. It would be a fine thing if the new resolution makers have resolved to improve on their way of life and will religiously adhere to their new resolutions throughout 1953. In all probability it would prove a blessing not only on themselves but the communities in which they live.

The year just closed revealed to us many startling things. Some were shocking, some were sensational, some were horrifying and some were very exciting. Shocking and breathtaking plane crashes that took the lives of thousands of our citizens. The most horrifying plane crash came just about the time the yuletide holidays across the nation and the world that were carrying hundreds of G. I.'s to their various homes to spend the holidays with loved ones had crashed and scores of G. I.'s had lost their lives. It was certainly the worst plane crash in the history of the country and certainly the worst in 1952.

1952 revealed to us the secret of the landslide victory of General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower on November 4 for President of the United States, thereby crushing the dreams and the aspirations of the New Deal Fair Dealers who have held a firm grip on the Federal government for 20 long purgatorial years.

1952 revealed to us the elevation of many prominent and qualified Negroes to places of responsibility and respectability. The most recent and certainly one of the most outstanding was the appointment of Joseph D. B. B. as Commissioner of Safety by Republican Governor-elect Stratton of Illinois, and many others too numerous to mention.

We have witnessed the gradual crumbling of the walls of prejudice throughout the country, in that, many of the outstanding institutions of learning that formerly prohibited Negroes to enter have opened their doors to them in many of the southern states.

1952 has revealed to us many medical societies admitting Negro doctors on par with white doctors into their organizations. 1952 revealed to us an increase in outstanding Negro athletes in the major baseball leagues and to the credit of those Negroes and the race they represent, they are doing a fine job in America's favorite sport.

In 1952 we witnessed the passing of some of America's foremost citizens and they have gone to try the realities of another world. Top educators, congressmen, U. S. Senators, diplomats and outstanding financiers, leading churchmen and just plain everyday good citizens' lights went out in 1952.

1952 told us in no unmistakable terms of the horrors of the Korean war. A war that the high priest of the Fair Deal refused to call a war. He referred to it as a mere international police act, but the American casualties in that Korean conflict are more than 125,000 people and that within itself reveals to us that President Truman was mistaken when he referred to it as a mere international police act.

But with all of the things that happened that tried the very souls of men in 1952, there were many bright spots. Chief among them was the election of the first Negro to the United States who said during his campaign that he would go to Korea, if elected, to see what could be done to stop the bloodshed in the Far East. He kept his promise. Eisenhower went to Korea. He's back home armed with first hand information about the Korean situation.

Let us hope that President-elect Eisenhower, who will assume the reign of office on January 20, 1953, may devise some method to stop the slaughter that is now in progress on the front lines of defense in Korea. Let us hope further that in the year of 1953 we will see a complete crumbling of the walls of prejudices throughout America and that people throughout the United States will religiously adhere to the directives that are to be found in the Constitution of the United States.

And May The New Year bring you much happiness.

help. James Jefferson, father of the dead man, asked Dr. Godfrey W. Hawkins, 1011 N. W. Second Ave., Miami, for an NAACP investigation. Hawkins is president of the chapter. Dr. Hawkins, a Miami dentist, asked Howard W. Dixon, while attorney for the Miami group, to conduct the investigation and make recommendations, for possible forwarding to the NAACP.

"If there is any possibility of violations of the federal Civil Rights act, the NAACP may even go beyond the state courts and ask the Federal Bureau of Investigation to come into the case," Dixon said. Dixon added that the investigation would be cautious, yet thorough and if the facts determine that "injustice has been done," the NAACP would not fail to aid the family.

Lasseter did not disclose any of the testimony taken by an official court reporter.

The testimony will be compiled into a report and submitted to the NAACP.

He said that it probably would be ready Monday.

BILL BELL, N. C. A & T HEAD COACH ON ACTIVE DUTY WITH AIR FORCE

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Capt. William Bell, Sr., United States Air Force Reserve, more popularly known as Bill Bell, director of athletics and head coach at A. and T. College, is now back in uniform. He took up duties as an associate professor of Air Science and Tactics in the Air Force ROTC program at the college early this morning.

According to orders received from the Air Force he has been relieved from the 894th Voluntary Air Reserve Training Squadron at Greensboro, N. C., and has been transferred to the 38th Training Squadron at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama, with a mobilization assignment at A. and T. He will serve in his new capacity in the standby reserve.

To allay the fears of sports fans, the new assignment is more nearly a part-time arrangement in the Air Force Reserve and Bell will continue to perform his athletic duties in his capacity as athletic coach at A. and T. He will continue to perform his athletic duties in his capacity as athletic coach at A. and T. He will continue to perform his athletic duties in his capacity as athletic coach at A. and T.

Coach Bell started his coaching career as assistant coach at Howard University, Washington, D. C., in 1932 and remained there through 1933. His first position as head coach began in 1934 at Clifton College, Orangeburg, S. C., where he remained for two years, his teams winning the South Atlantic Conference championships both years.

Bell reached the pinnacle of his pre-war coaching success at Florida A. and M. College during the years 1939 through 1943, where his teams won three Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championships and three mythical national collegiate championships.

In his pre-war years at A. and T., his teams captured the CIAA football championship in 1936 and the mythical National crown in 1961. During his 18 years of experience as a head coach he has compiled an amazing record of 117 wins, 12 ties and only 34 defeats more than half of the defeats were sustained here at A. and T. and practically all of these in his first three years. These three seasons were the worst of his otherwise sparkling career.

To be fair, football is just a part of the athletic program. In recent years, special attention has been given to other sports. His teams during the past school year have made the best records in the long history of athletic competition at the college. Under his able direction, the college's basketball and baseball title for the third consecutive year and in tennis the college won the single doubles and team conference championships, are co-leaders of the conference boxing title, and his track team won the Tuskegee Relays at Tuskegee and Alabama Relays at Montgomery last year.
